Dynamic music producer, engineer, and composer with a passion for helping music and visual artists develop original voices and communicate effectively to their audiences. Skilled at enhancing imagery and influencing mood and movement through a broad knowledge of music, sound design, and a rich blend of musical and technical experience. Persistent, empathetic and practical; thrives in fast-paced, client-oriented production environments at the nexus of creativity and leading edge technology.

Experience

Aug 2007-June 2010

Music Supervisor / Sound Designer

Fox Business Network, NYC

Branded Fox Business Network from launch with Music Direction and Sound Design for all FBN themes, shows, animations and segments. Developed protocol and chain of command for audio workflow: ordering of sound design and music for animations, popular and library music acquisition, use and reporting, and interfacing with directors, production staff, legal department, control rooms and master control. Edited and mixed all music, sound and voice-over elements for the network. Developed a strong and practical understanding of technology and network infrastructure for television, including ENCO, NEXIO and iNews. Consulted on technology upgrades including audio level control and 5.1 monitoring. Fostered a positive and productive working rapport across multiple departments and with outside vendors. Restructured Fox News Audio Department.

Sept 2000- Aug 2007

Producer / Senior Audio Engineer

Big Blue Meenie Studios, NJ

Performed all duties of Senior Staff Audio Engineer at this high-end analog and digital recording, production, and mastering complex: production, recording and mixing of full length records, digital editing and mastering of final mixes, recording of voice-overs for radio and television, supervision of interns and assistants, maintenance and configuration of audio gear and computers, and digital media archiving and transfers. Developed and adhered to project budgets and timelines while maintaining a strong and consistent level of client satisfaction and product quality.

1999-present
